

The airways are publicly owned-they must be protected from monopolies and private interest agendas. If we are to have an informed society we must be able to hear all voices not just those of the far right or whomever Michael Powell deems acceptable.